

National Midwifery Exam Results December 2017

The following table shows the National Midwifery Examination Results for those candidates who sat the examination in December 2017.

The table does not confirm proof of registration. Eligible candidates will be registered by close of business 12 January 2017 and can check their status on the online register.

Once you are registered you are not legally entitled to work until you have applied, paid for and have been granted a practising certificate. Work includes but is not limited to attendance at antenatal and postnatal visits as well as caring for women in labour and birth.

Registration packs will be posted to successful candidates and should arrive by Wednesday 17th January 2018.
