

National Midwifery Exam Results March 2019

The following table shows the National Midwifery Examination Results for those candidates who sat the examination in March 2019.

The table does not confirm proof of registration. Eligible candidates will be registered by close of business 3 April 2019 and can check their status on the online register.

Once you are registered you are not legally entitled to work until you have applied, paid for and have been granted a practising certificate. Work includes but is not limited to attendance at antenatal and postnatal visits as well as caring for women in labour and birth.

Registration packs will be posted to successful candidates and should arrive by Friday 12th April 2019.
